Circuit Court

From the records in the office of M. R. Henley, clerk of the circuit court for this county, it is learned that at the recent term of that court held here the total fines assessed against law violators were $675 and that eleven, were sentenced to the workhouse, a total of forty-five months. Following is a list of the workhouse sentences: Cal Blades, violating four mile law, $50 and four months. Walter Green, violating four mile law, $50 and six months. Joe Gregory, violating four mile law, $50 and six months. Bud Crutchfield, violating the four mile law, $50 and three months. Jim Hilliard, procuring liquor, $25. John Harwell, larceny, six months. Will Russell, violating four mile law $50 and four months. Jesse Carpenter, violating four mile law, $50 and six months. Isaac Wilson, carrying knucks, $50. Ed Williams, carrying pistol, $50 and 30 days. Robert Blair carrying pistol, $50 and three months. Jim Benson, larceny, three months. George Voss, larceny, three months. An unusual number of convictions and punishments to violators of the four mile law will be found in the above list, but there are others who will be apprehended in due time. Regular dealers in liquor in Fayette county are getting scarcer every year, but the one who seeks public gatherings and other public places to ply his trade on certain days is still in the business and officers in every part of this county have shown an interest in the apprehension of such, and the sheriff's force and numerous constables are to be commanded in their efforts to catch offenders of that kind. There will always be violators of this law in every county, but with vigilance on the part of officers and the assistance of the public it can be reduced to a minimum, and this is much to be desired.

"And they brought him home"

These grey hairs came when they brought Will home, after the fire. Afterward, it was all I could do to pull myself together and think of some way to keep the children and not break up the home. Will was a good husband and it was not his fault we couldn't save much money. He was more than good—he was thoughtful, too. I found, then, that he'd taken out the AETNA TEN DOLLAR COMBINATION POLICY and that I was to have over $3000 for it. Just think!—it cost him only $10 a year to

AETNA-IZE

—so little he never talked about it—and it brought this windfall to me! You never can tell when an accident may come. I'm sure if you told your Jack about it, Mrs. Rogers, he wouldn't rest until he'd gone straight to the agent—

COUNTY NEWS.

Union.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Carter and son, Nelson, of Memphis, are visiting relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Bradsher enjoyed a family reunion at their home last Friday. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bradsher and children, Mary and Taleta; Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Bradsher and little daughters, Sarah and Frankie; Mr. and Mrs. Thad Bradsher and baby, Elizabeth; Mr. and Mrs. Dee Bradsher, Mrs. Dollie Blaydes and children, Ruth, Annie and Arthur; Mrs. Tom Ross and Miss Vera Boyd, of Oakland; Jimmie Lee Boyd of Tulsa, Oklahoma; Roy Boyd of Mississippi; Miss Viola Blaydes of Raleigh, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Boyd and little sons, Maurice and James Edward; Charles Massie of Bartlett; Mrs. Bessie Griffin and children, Johnnie, Herron, Evelyn and Mary Lou; Mrs. Lou Griffin; Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Sanders and sons, Leo and Ray, and Ollie Wagner. All report a nice time. Mrs. Luella Mann, of Nashville, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Belle Stafford. Elton Murphey of Alamo, Jesse Murphey and family, Mrs. Gladys Murphey and children, Mrs. Belle Stafford and children and Mrs. Luella Mann, were Friday visitors in the home of J. T. Stafford. Jimmie Lee Boyd and sister, Vera, spent the week end with their brother, Livie Boyd. Mrs. Richard Johnson and children spent Friday with her sister, Mrs. L. M. Blaydes. Miss Viola Blaydes of Raleigh is visiting in the home of her uncle, Boot Blaydes. Marshall Griffin and family of Warren spent several days the past week visiting relatives in this neighborhood. Robert Wirt of Somerville was in our neighborhood a few days last week. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bradsher and children and Robert Wirt made a flying trip to Bartlett Thursday. Our school began July 31 with Miss Helen Hobbs for teacher. There seems to be a good enrollment of children.

"When you get to feeling blue, Wondering what's the use of living. When the things your neighbors do Seem too wrong for your forgiving, Stop a minute where you stand, Look your own self over fairly; It may be the fault is yours; Such things happen—meet them squarely."

The writer of these notes—W. L. Jewell—was not a candidate in Thursday's election for a place on the County Board of Education, and did not desire the office. He so informed many local voters during the day. However we are deeply grateful for the majority given him in his home district where several friends insisted that he be voted for. This splendid show of confidence is deeply appreciated by writer. We have heard no complaint against the present incumbent, C. H. Rich, who we believe will use whatever means at his command to better school conditions in the three districts and to secure able teachers, or as good as the present salary will attract, which is, by the way, not what it should be to get the best. We will say that when writer desires a public office the fact will be widely advertised and ample pleadings made for votes, as was the case when we decided to try for the Register's office before the members of the County Court. Again we thank all who extended this courtesy to us in Thursday's election, yet we wish to impress upon all the fact that we did not desire the place and so informed many friends during the day.

Hon. Hubert Fisher was here Monday in the interest of the Constitutional Convention which carried at this box by 83 majority.

John Pearce for Constable was chosen over A. B. Ashford by a vote of 70 to 25, while for the District Advisory Board, Messrs. J. J. Burnett Sr., L. J. Bryan and A. K. Hollida received the highest number of votes for these offices.

Mrs. G. C. Gaither and Miss Mildred Roach are visiting relatives in the delta. A man who must boss everything or bust it, is the right kind of person to keep in the rear of everything, never in front.

Are you taking advantage of the County Agent's advice and assistance in your farming operations? If not you are at fault and are paying for something you do not get.

L. C. Boswell a prominent attorney and banker of New Boston, Texas, and J. B. Boswell of Mt. Pleasant were Thursday guests of their brother, H. M. Boswell.

Miss Dewdrop Graves and Miss Koach from the delta country are visiting relatives here this week.

G. T. Bowling of Van Buren, Arkansas, who numbers his friends by the score, arrived here Tuesday to join Mrs. Bowling and children for a stay of two weeks.

Miss Ida Jelly Crawford, a prominent portrait painter, James, Alta and Dony Pulliam of Strong, Mississippi, and Mrs. A. G. Pulliam of La Grange, were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Pulliam.

Bury your sorrows but fling your joys right and left wherever you go. Better to be small and shine than to be great and cast a shadow.

We are glad to be able to report an improvement in the condition of Esq. J. J. Steger who is yet closely confined to his home here.

Miss Emma Bedford spent the week past at the bedside of a sick relative in Memphis.

A very important county office is to be filled at the January term of the County Court—Superintendent of Public Instruction. We trust the magistrates will choose for the place one who has no public pets, who is progressive, and will promptly rectify any just cause for complaint regarding public school conditions in the county. A capable and fair superintendent will find much pertaining to the office to keep him busy, and a splendid chance to endeavor himself to the patrons.

It is better to be safe than sorry. Constable J. D. Pearce assisted by three deputies made the arrest of five negroes Saturday who had been selling beer at a negro picnic near Hay's Crossing just west of Moscow. The negroes were taken direct to Somerville on the accommodation train and turned over to the sheriff. It would be well if the numerous affairs of this kind each year were watched after more closely by Fayette county officers as liquor is generally sold at many of these picnics.

Mrs. J. M. Johnson returned to her home in Whiteville Saturday after a visit of several days with her sister, Mrs. J. M. Mauldin.

Miss Fannie Hix who has been the guest of local friends the past week left Saturday for her home in Grand Junction.

The notice in last issue of the Falcon from the Superintendent of Tennessee's Children's Home appealing to the public for a home for the little ones being cared for in that institution, should be taken advantage of by those in whose homes the childish prattle of a little one is not now heard. We know of some homes where the presence of a sweet child to love and rear must be missed and which a little one would make brighter and happier. The writer has five—three boys and two girls—each one indeed a "Jewel." Our home would truly be a dreary one without sweet childhood to cheer and bless it.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pankey of Corinth were Sabbath guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Bryant, the latter a daughter.

Mrs. O. E. Pruette and baby are enjoying the beauties of Iuka, the beneficial water, and are guests while there of a brother, Virge Ware.

Get Ready

Now is the time that your hens will moult or shed their feathers. This process is rather slow and Nature should be assisted. B. A. Thomas' Poultry Remedy will help your hens to moult causing them to shed earlier and be ready to lay when eggs are higher in the winter. If this remedy does not make good, we will. W. S. Fifteenth district, constable W. A. Davis; advisory board, J. J. Arrowood, L. T. Booth and J. D. McCauley.

The official returns on the constitutional convention election was 788 votes for and 38 votes against the convention, no election being held at Pipers or Elba, ten of the other precincts giving a unanimous vote for the convention.

Farmers Institute August 14

Because of the insufficient time between the issue of The Falcon last week and the meeting of the directors of the Fayette county fair and the Farmers Institute called for Saturday there were but few of either body present here on that date and it was decided to postpone the meetings until a later date. The Institute meeting will be held on August 14, which falls on Monday and the secretary and vice-president of that organization ask that farmers who desire to go to Jackson next month to the division institute be here on that date. Names must be sent to Nashville so that transportation can be sent here for these delegates and this will take about two weeks. A president must be elected to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Kyle and these delegates must be named.

This county should have every farmer possible go to Jackson to the division institute and see and hear the valuable things done and said and exhibited there. The meeting is held in the auditorium at the state farm and gives an opportunity to visit the farm. Meet with the county institute next Monday, August 14, at 10 a. m. if you want to go to Jackson next month.
